

PRELIMINARY PROPOSAL FOR EDUCATIONAL SERVICES

This is a preliminary, non-binding proposal on the educational services provided by Finland University to the Ton Duc Thang University in Ho Chi Minh, Vietnam. This proposal is subject to concluding a written contract regarding the training.

SUMMARY OF PROPOSAL FOR EDUCATIONAL SERVICES

Service provider

Finland University

	EDUCATIONAL SERVICE	DESCRIPTION	PRICE
1	Summer School course of the University of Eastern Finland (UEF) on Food Law and Policy with coordinator service	A two-week Summer School at UEF Joensuu campus in August 2019	31 000 euro for 20 students
2	Intensive course on International Commercial Law	A five day intensive course on international commercial law, taking place at Ton Duc Thang University, lecturers experts from the University of Eastern Finland	23 000 euro for 30 students
3	10 ECTS course package on Contract Negotiations and Trade Innovation and Development with academic coordinator service	A 10 ECTS (two months) course package on Contract Negotiations and Trade Innovation and Development taking place at the UEF Law School	15 000 euro for 5 students
4	30 ECTS law studies at the UEF Law School with academic coordinator service	30 ECTS (five months/one semester) studies at the UEF Law School	35 000 euro for 5 students

EDUCATIONAL SERVICE 1:

Summer School course of the University of Eastern Finland (UEF) on Food Law and Policy with coordinator service

The Summer School course on Food Law and Policy works from the idea of aligning food policies in an effort to improve food security worldwide. Finnish and international experts in fields of food security, food safety and nutrition, animal law, international trade, IPRs cover the foundations of food law as a legal discipline through the lens of contemporary scholarship on food law and policy issues. The course includes industry representatives and visits.

A detailed description on the course is in appendix 1. The programme is preliminary and may be subject to changes.

Place:	University of Eastern Finland, Joensuu campus
Date:	12-23 August 2019
Duration:	Two weeks
Target group:	Master and doctoral level student of Ton Duc Thang University
Group size:	Proposal is valid for the group of maximum of 20 participants,
Main objectives:	The student will learn how society regulates food. The student will learn how the inter-play of policies is not restricted to traditional food security issues, but cover regulatory and policy issues from food safety, global food chains, sustainable food production, public health and nutrition, food development and food security. The student will get an overview of the basic concepts and conflicting structures of various food-related fields of law through an inter-disciplinary approach. The student will acquire skills to evaluate food policy reporting in a legal context and improved legal argumentation skills.
Language:	The teaching language of the training is English. All learning materials will be in English.
Responsible persons at UEF:	Academic staff members of UEF School of Law
Certification:	Each participant of this programme will receive a certificate from UEF.
Total (€) price:	Total price is 31 000 euros (excluding possible VAT or any other similar costs) The price includes:

- Registration to the Summer School course on Food Law and Policy
- Pick-up service from the airport or railway/bus station upon arrival
- Welcome/information material package upon your arrival
- Teaching and course material
- Study facilities on campus (use of computers, library etc.)
- Certificate/transcript after the course
- Free events of the social programme
- Coordination services, coordinator Dr Hang Nguyen, UEF Law School

The price does not include:

- Travelling costs such as flights, accommodation
- Lunch and refreshments during the programme
- Translation or interpretation services

EDUCATIONAL SERVICE 2:

Intensive course on International Commercial Law

A five day intensive course on international commercial law, lecturers professor Katja Lindroos and Dr Hang Nguyen from UEF Law School. The course takes place at Ton Duc Thang University in Ho Chi Minh, Vietnam

The contents will be negotiated more in detail. Additional topics can be agreed upon separately.

Place:	Ton Duc Thang University, Ho Chi Minh, Vietnam
Date:	September 2019
Duration:	Five days
Target group:	Master and doctoral level student of Ton Duc Thang University
Group size:	Proposal is valid for the group of maximum of 30 participants.

- Main objectives: The participants will obtain an overview of the main international trade law instruments, with a particular focus intangible assets in international and European Union law. The course covers business transactions in real or e-commerce from the perspective of contract law and securing intellectual property rights. The participants will learn basic distinction between different forms of intellectual property rights, how to secure international protection of IPRs and enforce the right in foreign and domestic markets.
- Language: The teaching language of the training is English. All learning materials will be in English.
- Responsible persons at UEF: Professor Katja Lindroos and Dr. Hang Nguyen
- Certification: Each participant of this programme will receive a certificate from Finland University.
- Total (€) price: Total price is 23 000 euro (excluding possible VAT or any other similar costs)
- The price includes:
- Flight costs of UEF academic experts from Finland to Vietnam
 - Lectures and practices in the intensive course for one time, no recording
 - Materials
 - Certificate of participation, issued by Finland University

Ton Duc Thang University is responsible for marketing of the course, for all practical course coordination and for covering the accomodation costs of the academic experts from the UEF Law School teaching in the course.

EDUCATIONAL SERVICE 3:10 ECTS course package on Contract Negotiations and Trade Innovation and Development with academic coordinator service

A two-month study period at the UEF Law School, where students study total of 10 ECTS on Contract Negotiations and Trade Innovation and Development.

Additional topics can be agreed upon separately.

Place:	University of Eastern Finland, Law School, Joensuu campus
Date:	March-April 2020
Duration:	Two months
Target group:	Master and doctoral level student of Ton Duc Thang University
Group size:	Proposal is valid for the group of maximum of 5 participants.
Main objectives:	The students will acquire basic knowledge of international trade law and practical skills for contract negotiations, team work and written legal analysis.
Language:	The teaching language of the training is English. All learning materials will be in English.
Responsible persons at UEF:	Professor Katja Lindroos and Dr. Hang Nguyen
Certification:	Each participant of this programme will receive a certificate from Finland University.
Total (€) price:	Total price is 15 000 euro (excluding possible VAT or any other similar costs) The price includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Teaching and course material▪ Study facilities on campus (use of computers, library etc.)▪ Certificate/transcript after the course▪ Academic coordination service, coordinator Dr Hang Nguyen, UEF Law School

The price does not include:

- Travelling costs such as flights, accommodation
- Lunch and refreshments during the programme
- Translation or interpretation services

EDUCATIONAL SERVICE 4:

30 ECTS law studies at the UEF Law School with academic coordinator service

One semester of studies at the UEF Law School, where students study total of 30 ECTS on international commercial law subjects.

Additional topics can be agreed upon separately.

Place:	University of Eastern Finland, Law School, Joensuu campus
Date:	One semester, e.g. January-May 2020
Duration:	One semester
Target group:	Master and doctoral level student of Ton Duc Thang University
Group size:	Proposal is valid for the group of maximum of 5 participants.
Main objectives:	The students will acquire basic knowledge of international commercial law and practical skills for legal argumentation, team work and written legal analysis.
Language:	The teaching language of the training is English. All learning materials will be in English.
Responsible persons at UEF:	Professor Katja Lindroos and Dr. Hang Nguyen
Certification:	Each participant of this programme will receive a certificate from Finland University.
Total (€) price:	Total price is 35 000 euro (excluding possible VAT or any other similar costs) The price includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Teaching and course material▪ Study facilities on campus (use of computers, library etc.)

- Certificate/transcript after the course
- Academic coordination service, coordinator Dr Hang Nguyen, UEF Law School

The price does not include:

- Travelling costs such as flights, accommodation
- Lunch and refreshments during the programme
- Translation or interpretation services

GENERAL INFORMATION ON THE PROPOSAL

Period of validity:	This proposal is valid until 31 May 2019. Correspondence is expected.
Country of purchase:	Finland
Programme provider:	The University of Eastern Finland, Finland, is an Internationally acknowledged, multidisciplinary scientific university hosting five faculties. The University is recognized for the quality of teaching, research and excellent student support services. UEF offers first-class education that is bound to make a difference. UEF is one of the largest universities in Finland, and home to approximately 15,000 students and 2,800 members of staff. The campuses are located in Joensuu and Kuopio. UEF is a multidisciplinary university, which offers teaching in more than 100 major subjects. UEF has four faculties: the Philosophical Faculty, the Faculty of Science and Forestry, the Faculty of Health Sciences, and the Faculty of Social Sciences and Business Studies. Since 2012, both QS World University Rankings and Times Higher Education World University Rankings have published lists of the world's top universities under 50 years of age. In 2017, Academic Ranking of World Universities, UEF ranks 301-400. In 2017 Times Higher Education World Rankings, UEF ranks 301-350. Further, in 2017 QS World University Rankings, UEF stands at the position 451-460. In terms of ranking by subjects, in QS

World University Rankings and Academic Ranking of World Universities (ARWU), the University of Eastern Finland has been ranked among the world's leading universities in several subjects in recent years.

Service provider:

Finland University is a joint effort of three top level Finnish research universities, the University of Turku, the University of Tampere and the University of Eastern Finland. The organization makes academic competencies of all three universities available to companies, organizations, governments and NGOs aiming to develop their operations, processes and staff. Every development process, professional programme, and support service is based on the latest world-class scientific research and on active dialogue with the research community.

Terms and time of delivery:

Please see each educational service

Terms of payment:

Prices are exclusive of VAT and other sales, use, property, income or other taxes, duties, fees or other official charges, whether federal, provincial, state or local ("Taxes"). If any payment is subject to any Taxes, Finland University shall be entitled to charge such Taxes to the Customer and such Taxes shall be paid by the Customer in addition to the price.

In the event that the authorities in Vietnam impose any Taxes on payments made or to be made by the Customer to Finland University and require the Customer to withhold such Taxes from such payments, the Customer shall (i) pay the price added with the amount of the applicable Taxes so that the net sum paid to Finland University shall be equivalent to the amount payable to Finland University without deduction or withholding of any such Taxes; (b) deduct or withhold such Taxes from such payments; and (iii) pay such Taxes to the appropriate authorities in accordance with law. In such event, the Customer shall promptly provide Finland University with receipts or documentary evidence as well as all other forms prescribed by the relevant authorities. More detailed terms of payment in the precise contract.

Other terms and conditions:

Finland University shall have the right to use subcontractors for the performance of the course. All intellectual property rights including without limitation copyrights relating to all course materials shall belong to Finland University or its licensors. Finland University shall not be responsible for any indirect or consequential damage. The maximum total liability of Finland University Inc. shall not exceed the total price paid by the customer for the Professional Training Course.

Contact person:

Mari Argillander
Key Account Manager
Finland University
E-mail: mari.argillander@finuni.fi
Tel. +358 40 355 3850

Please send your response via e-mail to mari.argillander@finuni.fi

Helsinki, April 26, 2019

Yours sincerely,

Pasi Kaskinen
CEO
Finland University

UEF SUMMER SCHOOL COURSE – DETAILED DESCRIPTIONFOOD LAW AND POLICY

Time:	12-23 August 2019
Campus:	Joensuu
Duration and credits:	two weeks, 2 or 5 ECTS
Teaching language:	English
Level:	Master, Doctoral
Maximum number of attendees:	to be announced
Course coordinator:	Hang Nguyen hang.nguyen@uef.fi
Responsible department:	UEF Law School

Learning outcomes: The student will learn how society regulates food. The student will learn how the inter-play of policies is not restricted to traditional food security issues, but cover regulatory and policy issues from food safety, global food chains, sustainable food production, public health and nutrition, food development and food security. The student will get an overview of the basic concepts and conflicting structures of various food-related fields of law through an inter-disciplinary approach. The student will acquire skills to evaluate food policy reporting in a legal context and improved legal argumentation skills.

Content: The course works from the idea of aligning food policies in an effort to improve food security worldwide. Finnish and international experts in fields of food security, food safety and nutrition, animal law, international trade, IPRs cover the foundations of food law as a legal discipline through the lens of contemporary scholarship on food law and policy issues. The course includes industry representatives and visits.

Modes of study: This course is primarily designed for Finnish and international Master level students. It is also suitable for experts working in institutions applying food law or making food policy as well as doctoral students in related fields. Attendance and completion of course work on-site in Joensuu is required. The course consists of expert lectures/workshops, study visits, and writing a learning diary.

Study materials: The lectures and course materials (articles, reports and official documents) will be shared on Moodle.

Evaluation criteria: Students will receive detailed information, when selected for participation.

Teachers: to be announced